INTRODUCTION

At the children's hospital, Dora, Pablo and Kate meet a little boy who's lost his toy monkey Mono. He's left him on the train! Dora and her friends promise to find Mono and bring him back. Join them on an exciting adventure as they search the train station for Mono. Along the way, look for the yellow stars and collect as many as you can!

CURRICULUM

Levels

This cartridge has a tiered levelling system. During The Search for Mono, choose Easy or Difficult mode based on your child's age and ability level. For this cartridge, Easy Mode is for approximately 3 and 4-year-olds, while Difficult Mode is for ages 5-6. For Free Play, you can likewise select Easy and Difficult modes. Difficulty increases as your child progresses through each game.

Teaches Social Studies Concepts and More

The Dora and Friends cartridge has a social studies theme. At this young age, social studies skills are often weaved seamlessly into the story, allowing kids to absorb culture, geography, and citizenship concepts as they play. The Search for Mono explores geography skills, introduces multicultural concepts, and models good citizenship through helping others.
