INTRODUCTION

As the family cruises the galaxy, Miles gathers Galileo Coins that he can use to buy toy models of his favourite science gear. Can you help him collect them all?

CURRICULUM

Levels

This cartridge has a tiered levelling system. During Adventure Play, choose Easy or Difficult mode based on your child's age and ability level. For this cartridge, Easy is for approximately 4 and 5-year-olds, while Difficult is for ages 6-7. For Free Play, you can likewise select Easy and Difficult. Difficulty increases as your child progresses through each game.

Teaches Science Concepts and More

This cartridge focuses on science skills. For young children science skills are closely tied with problem solving, which introduces children to the exploratory nature of science. In Miles from Tomorrow, much of the science is weaved seamlessly into the story, allowing science vocabulary and concepts to be taught without interrupting the fun of Miles exploring his world and completing his missions.

Track Your Child's Learning Progress Online

Connect to VTech's online Progress Log for detailed information about the time your child spends playing this cartridge. We'll give you a breakdown of your child's performance and the skills taught in every game so you can quickly see where your child excels and where additional support is needed.

To view the Progress Log, go to: www.vtech.co.uk/progresslog

The screenshot shows the 'Progress Log' interface for a child named Chris. At the top, it says 'Chris' and 'Last visited on May 4, 2015'. Below this is a dropdown menu to 'Choose another child'. A message states: 'Once Chris has played a few times, connect his device to the Internet to upload his scores, and we'll show you how he's doing.' The main section is titled 'Chris's learning achievements' and is divided into five tabs: '12-36 Months', '3 Years & Up', '4 Years & Up', '5 Years & Up', and '6 Years & Up'. The '4 Years & Up' tab is currently selected. The interface lists five categories of skills, each with a corresponding icon and a list of sub-skills in rounded rectangular buttons:

- Language Development (VTech logo icon): Letters, Phonics, Grammar, Handwriting
- Reading (book icon): Early Reading Concepts, Vocabulary & Spelling, Listening & Identifying Sounds, Reading Comprehension
- Mathematics (VTech logo icon): Patterns & Classification, Numbers & Counting, Measurement, Geometry, Computation
- Social Studies & Sciences (people icon): Safety, Community & Culture, Life Sciences
- Creative & Critical Thinking (flower icon): Art, Music, Logic & Memory, Visual Skills

You can also connect directly on the InnoTab® MAX by selecting Progress Log from the Parental Controls menu.
